

CARRANZA REQUESTS WITHDRAWAL OF TROOPS

CARNIVAL SHOWS IN DIXON LIMITS; NOT BE STOPPED

Mistake in Boundaries
Found—Moose Offers
Fee, City Refuses.

After much has been said, both one way and another, it was discovered within the last 24 hours that the Heth Carnival company, showing under the auspices of the local lodge of Moose, has all but two of their tents within the limits of the city of Dixon. Just who is to blame for this condition has not been determined and no steps will be taken to move the carnival company and the Moose lodge will not be required to pay a license fee to the city.

This was the agreement reached when Mayor Mark D. Smith and W. C. Kent, dictator of the lodge, met at the city hall this morning. The mayor was unaware of the fact that the city limits at this point runs in a diagonal direction from the corner of College avenue and Woodlawn to the Gossard plant. The dictator of the lodge explained to the executive that he was also unaware of the boundary line, thus making it a mistake on the part of both parties concerned.

Will Not Collect License.

Mayor Smith was not inclined to force the lodge membership to pay for a license permitting the carnival company to show in Dixon after the mistake was discovered. He has visited the grounds and has no fault to find with the attractions and concessions, other than still maintaining a dislike for carnivals. After the consultation with W. C. Kent, the mayor stated that this mistake would not enable other companies to gain admission into the city limits. He expressed himself in a very plain manner when he announced that during the remainder of his term of office as mayor of the city, that no carnival company would be permitted to show within the city.

The mistake was discovered yesterday and was at once brought to the attention of the city authorities. An investigation of the city map showed that the shows, with the possible exception of two tents, were in the city. Mayor Smith took the stand that he would not interfere at this time to prevent the Moose lodge from realizing their share of the benefits after bringing the snare of the city to Dixon. He also stated that after visiting the grounds he had no complaint to make against any of the shows or concessions as far as he had been able to see without visiting them, and he also expressed himself as being highly pleased with the management of the company.

Army Shoes Sell in France for Little; Home Price Mounts

Paris, Wednesday, Aug. 20.—(Delayed.)—Congressman Oscar E. Bland, of Indiana, a member of the war expenditures investigating committee, which is here explaining records pertaining to the liquidation of the affairs of the American army in France, said today that he felt it was more important to lower the cost of living for the American public than to endeavor to protect market prices and prevent the market from breaking.

Mr. Bland said the pressure brought to bear by American dealers and manufacturers in an effort to prevent the return of war supplies from France to America were objectionable to him, adding that "when Americans so badly need shoes it seems strange that so many good army shoes should be sold at low prices to Belgium and other European countries. American working men in the meantime being forced to pay higher prices in the United States." He said the same was true as to trucks and motor cars needed in America.

Until he knows the full details of the liquidation of American army affairs here Mr. Bland said it would be unwise to criticize too sharply as it would probably be necessary to sell some supplies which America would like to have but which could not be returned to the United States.

They accepted a temporary increase of five cents an hour with the understanding that if the situation warranted it a further increase would be granted them by Judge Evans of the United States district court in Chicago. U.S. CONTROL OF BUSINESS IS HIT BY SEN. FERNALD

Upholds Packers, Says Past Experience is
Lesson to U. S.

Washington, Aug. 21.—An attack on governmental tendency toward assuming control of business enterprises, with especial reference to proposed legislation for supervision of the packing industry, was made today by Senator Fernald of Maine, speaking in the senate. Stamping the Kenyon and Kendrick bills, vehicles of the packer regulation now under discussion, as examples of "stifling, throttling legislation," he declared his opposition to them, said they were extensions of the policy which had failed in the transportation and communication industries, and predicted that the public would suffer from higher costs and poorer service should they be enacted.

Cites Railroad Control.

"I cannot believe the senate of the United States feels after the experience we have had with government control of railroads, telegraph and telephone lines, that the policy should be continued," Senator Fernald said. "It would certainly lead to chaos and commercial bankruptcy. In behalf of the business men of the country, those who have had as much to do with making our country great as any other class of citizens, I want to protest here and now against this proposed legislation. It is filled with danger to our institutions and our system of government. It is socialistic, it is un-American, and it should be defeated."

Packers Give Valuable Service.

Defending the packers, Senator Fernald said their business had to be conducted in large units in order to be economical. Their development of refrigerators and ownership of stock yards, like their utilization of animal by-products, constituted valuable service.

"One of the most notable results of by-product utilization is the fact that all the meat from a steer can be sold by the packer for much less than he pays for the live animal," Senator Fernald said.

Bandit Confesses to Downers Grove Job

Aurora, Ill., Aug. 21.—Arthur Hamill, of Chicago, leader of the five bandits who robbed the Downers Grove First National bank July 3, getting $22,000, pleaded guilty today while on trial at Wheaton. He also testified that David Gibson and James Johnston, also of Chicago, who are being tried with him, are not guilty. They were not with him, he said. Hamill had an attorney. Garfield Sullivan of Chicago, a companion in the Downers Grove robbery pleaded guilty Friday. State Attorney Hadley says the cases against Gibson and Johnston will not be dismissed. Some residents of Downers Grove say that they saw Gibson and Johnston with the confessed robber. The closing arguments by attorneys are being made this afternoon.

Smugglers of German Marks Are Detected

Berlin, Wednesday, Aug. 20.—(Delayed.)—The mystery surrounding the identity of the individuals involved in an attempt to smuggle 29,000,000 marks across the German-Swiss frontier is approaching solution according to reports from Weimar, where Chief of Police Ernst of Berlin is conferring with cabinet ministers.

Police authorities claim to have under detention all persons engaged in the conspiracy, which collapsed when the airplanes which were to carry the money, securities and jewels into Switzerland were intercepted near Nuremberg, Bavaria.

WAR DEPARTMENT HALTS SALE OF ARMY BLANKETS

Chicago, Ill., Aug. 21.—Sale of surplus army blankets which began in Chicago four days ago was suddenly stopped last night by orders received from Washington. The only reason assigned for the order by local army officers is that the war department perhaps feared that the stock might be over-sold.

ANTI-PROFITEER BILL GIVEN O. K. BY HOUSE BODY

$5000 Fine, Two Years in Prison Provided in Drastic Act.

Washington, D. C., Aug. 21.—Amendments to the food control act imposing a $5,000 fine and imprisonment of two years for profiteering were ordered favorably reported today by the house agriculture committee.

The legislation was proposed by Attorney General Palmer and extends the terms of the act to include among the list of necessities "wearing apparel, containers of food, feed or fertilizers, fuel oil, and natural gas."

The amendment granting price fixing power to President Wilson was eliminated upon the suggestion of the attorney general, who told the committee yesterday that such power was "inapplicable in the present fight against high prices."

Retailers, previously exempted under the act, now are liable to prosecution for violations, but farmers and farmers' cooperative associations are exempted.

The amendment probably will be considered by the house tomorrow.

DEALER FOUND GUILTY.

Columbus, O., Aug. 21.—Theodore Leonard, Jr., of Columbus, one of the 40 food dealers arrested last week by the state of Ohio on charges of violating the Smith cold storage law by holding meats in cold storage longer than the time limit set by the law was found guilty on one count in municipal court here today and was given the maximum sentence—a fine of $500 and costs. Leonard will appeal and the case made a test case.

AMERICANS AND GERMANS CLASH, CIVILIANS HURT

Disorders Near Danzig
Grow Out of Fight
at Dance Hall.

Copenhagen, Aug. 21.—Collisions between German and American sailors on Tuesday at Neufahrwasser resulted in the wounding of several civilians and one German seaman, according to Danzig dispatches received here today. Neufahrwasser is a seaport four miles north of Danzig.

The disorders grew out of a quarrel in a dance hall Monday night, according to these dispatches. Americans involved in the disturbance, which was continued in the streets after the sailors left the dance hall, returned to their ship, the destroyer Hale.

On Tuesday seamen on leave from the German cruiser Frankfurt came to blows with American sailors and it is said civilians also attacked the Americans.

The Americans, supported by French seamen from the destroyer Claymore, charged the crowds. Shots are said to have been fired from the Claymore, wounding four Germans slightly.

Frontier guards dispersed the crowds and the Americans and the French returned to their ships.

Illinois Red Men to Hold Meeting Oct. 8-9

WILSON SAYS HE LACKS RIGHT TO DECLARE PEACE

Would Not Do So If He Could, He Tells Sen.
Fall, New Mexico.

Washington, Aug. 21.—Democratic senate leaders, apparently divided over the expediency of the compromise proposal for peace treaty reservations separate from the ratification, decided today not to press for action the resolution Senator Pittman, democrat, of Nevada, embodying the compromise plan. The impression was given that the measure probably would be permitted to lie over indefinitely.

The decision was taken after Senator Pittman had made it clear that in introducing the resolution he acted on his own initiative.

Has Not Abandoned Plan.

In a formal statement, Senator Pittman said he had not abandoned his purpose to press his resolution later and would attempt to get action as soon as possible.

"My resolution went over under the rules," said Senator Pittman, "subject to being called up by me at any time. I did not call it up today because a number of senators requested an opportunity to examine the resolution. I intend to attempt to obtain the earliest possible action. It was introduced for the purpose of hastening the ratification of the treaty."

The president had no knowledge of the resolution or of its introduction.

CANNOT DECLARE PEACE.

Washington, D. C., Aug. 21.—President Wilson has not the power to declare peace by proclamation, nor could he consent in any circumstances to the ratification of a formal treaty of peace by the senate. The president so wrote Senator Fall today in answer to one of the 20 written questions the senator presented at the white house conference Tuesday.

Replying to another question, the president said the provision of the treaty that it should come into force after ratification by Germany and three of the principal associated powers operated merely to establish peace between those ratifying powers and that it was "questionable whether it can be said that the league of nations is in any true sense created by the association of only three of the allied and associated governments."

Would Reduce H. C. of L.

As to the question of when normal conditions might be restored, the president said he could only express the confident opinion that immediate ratification.

All-Russ Government Fast Growing Weaker

Tokio, Sunday, Aug. 17.—(Delayed.)—The all-Russian government at Omsk has transferred its gold reserve and archives eastward to Irkutsk, according to apparently reliable reports received here. Other information indicates that the Omsk government's position is growing weaker because of the advance of the bolsheviks and the desertion of Siberian troops.

The Hochi Shimbun today published dispatches from Peking that the Omsk government had fallen but added there was no confirmation.

It is believed here that the Japanese army, if it becomes necessary, will attempt to prevent an advance of the bolsheviks east of Irkutsk.

BANKS' AUTOMOBILE IS WRECKED IN WILD TRIP DOWN ASSEMBLY HILL

Started Itself, Hit Tree, Turned Over and Rolled to Water's Edge.

An Oldsmobile, belonging to Chairman John Banks of the board of supervisors and also chairman of the board of review, was almost completely wrecked at the noon hour today in Assembly park, when in some manner it started in motion and headed straight down the steep hill to the river. The first obstacle to oppose the rapidly increasing speed of the machine was a bench, which was overturned and broken, the car changing its course and striking a tree. This caused the heavy machine to turn completely over on its side and with the speed it had attained, it rolled down to the water's edge before it came to a stop.

The frame was bent and broken in several places and the car otherwise badly damaged. Two small boys were in a boat near the bank when the heavy car crashed into a tree which deflected it from its course toward the river and thus probably averted a double drowning. The car is almost a complete loss. A force of men from the Angier Wilson garage went to the scene this afternoon to pull the damaged machine to the garage where the full extent of loss will be determined. Mr. Banks had left the car standing beneath a tree on top of the hill just east of the bathhouse.

Protest Strike of Coal Miners Ended

Springfield, Ill., Aug. 21.—The last of the miners in Illinois who have been on protest strike against state miners officials went back to work today.

A halt was called in the strike, by the convention of reactionary still in session here, who said agitation against "autocratic" methods of present miners officials had accomplished the desired results. Formal charges are to be lodged against the officials at the regular Peoria convention in November by vote of the insurgent convention.

Frank Farrington, president of the state miners' organization, said today at no time were there more than 15,000 miners idle because of the strike, while strike leaders claimed 60,000 responded to the call.

"When the insurgents discovered that practically every man had gone back to work last Monday, the rump convention here decided to call off the strike," Farrington said this morning.

Today's convention session began with a discussion revolving about the proposed new wage scale.

Bandits Steal Mail From L. & N. Train

Nashville, Tenn., Aug. 21.—Masked bandits held up Louisville and Nashville passenger train number 7, from Cincinnati to Montgomery, Ala., between Columbia and Pulaski, early today and carried off the mail pouches.

None of the passengers was molested. The robbers, four in number, forced the engineer to cut off the mail car and run some distance with it. Covering the crew, the robbers sent the engine running wild and rifled the mail car. The amount of loot could not be determined.

Steel Workers Will Submit Wage Demand Before Walking Out

Youngstown, O., Aug. 21.—On the success of leaders of 24 labor unions affiliated in the steel industry in obtaining a conference with representatives of the United States steel corporation during the next ten days, depends whether there is to be a nation-wide strike of steel workers. Union leaders who canvassed the strike vote here yesterday, say that 98 per cent of the men voting on the question, voted to walk out.

Instead of calling a general strike forthwith, a conference committee of six, headed by Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, was instructed to try to arrange the meeting with representatives of the steel corporation in a final attempt to adjust demands made by the unions. In case of failure to obtain the conference the committee is under instructions to set a strike date forthwith.

Claims Incident About
Aviators Was Error
on Their Part.

Laredo, Texas, Aug. 21.—Mexican bandits who robbed the Heth American sailors in a launch from the U. S. S. Cheyenne off Tampico, early in June, have been arrested by Carranza secret police in Dona Cecilia, a suburb of Tampico, according to information received here today.

ASKS MEXICAN HELP.

Marfa, Tex., Aug. 21.—Colonel Langhorne, American army commander in the Big Bend district, today suggested to Cosme Bengoecha, Mexican consul at Presidio, Tex., that the consul communicate with General Pruneada, Mexican commander, who now is near Guichillo Parado, and suggest to Pruneada that American and Mexican troops cooperate in pursuing the bandits who captured Aviators Davis and Peterson.

Langhorne informed the consul that it was easier for American troops to pursue the bandits than for the Mexican troops, because of an early start and the availability of greater facilities.

FRESH TRAIL PICKED UP.

Marfa, Tex., Aug. 21.—The American punitive expedition in Mexico at daybreak today took up the bandit chase for the third day across the border. One column picked up the hot trail of two bandits believed to have been companions of the two bandits captured late yesterday by Captain Leonard Matlack.

By sunrise airplanes left the ground here for Presidio, 60 miles south where a flying field base for the expedition has been established.

Aviators located all the American columns in Mexico yesterday. The fliers also found the Mexican federal column under General Antonio Pruneada, near Cuchillo Parado, and reported the location of other small bodies of Carranza troops.

When the fliers left this morning they carried news bulletins furnished by the Associated Press, which they planned to drop for each cavalry troop operating in Mexico, to give them news of the outside world since they crossed the border.

At the close of the supper the president of the class, Miss Laura Long, in a few very appropriate remarks, presented Rev. and Mrs. F. D. Altman a beautiful cut glass fruit basket. Rev. Altman then responded for himself and Mrs. Altman, telling of the happy relations between him and the class, he being its former teacher, but having been compelled by ill health to discontinued teaching two years ago. He reviewed the activities of the class

Seeks to Get Labor Costs in Production

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Washington, D. C., Aug. 21.—President Wilson is asked in a resolution introduced today by Representative Cars of Minnesota, to furnish such information as may be in the possession of the federal trade commission which will identify the proportion that labor cost forms in the total cost of production of coal, steel, copper, meat, canned goods and other necessities.

The resolution was introduced at the request of the national federation of federal employees, which announced that the information would "effectually dispose of the vicious fallacy that labor costs represent the chief item in the increased cost of living."

Mountaineer Will Be 131 Years Old on September 3rd

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Louisville, Ky., Aug. 21.—Several hundred descendants are preparing to gather at the log-cabin home of "Uncle" John Shell on Greasy Creek, Leslie county, Ky., September 3 to celebrate the mountaineer's birthday. Just what form the festival will take has not been divulged.

Meanwhile the National Geographic Society is investigating Shell's claim that he is 131 years old and whether he is the oldest man in the United States.

There is no doubt among Shell's neighbors as to his age. Men, eighty years old, declare he was an old man when they were youths. Colonel Chappell says he has a tax duplicate signed by Shell in 1809 when he was 21, the earliest age, under Kentucky laws, to pay taxes.

Shell is father of eleven children, the oldest of whom is said to be 90 years old. He has several great grand children and descendants in his home section are said to number nearly 200. Excellent eyesight, three successive sets of teeth and all of his faculties are claimed by the Kentuckian who attributed his long life to outdoor living and temperate habits.

FEDERAL LOADS.

The American system of government has succeeded because it distributes the burdens of government easily and sensibly among the nation, the state, and the municipality. The county carries some of the burden, but it is being argued now that the county is unnecessary and that it creates additional burdens by its multiplying of public machinery.There has been a disposition of late years to dump all sorts of new burdens on to the government at Washington.
States and cities have shown a marked tendency, in wartime especially, to force upon congress or the executive departments tasks which they should properly have handled themselves. Washington has struggled manfully with the load, but has nearly broken its back in the process.With the war over, the strain has lessened considerably, but there is still a tendency to impose new tasks on the national government. The most notable instance today is the demand for federal ownership of the railroads. There is also talk of federalization of mines and other big industries."An overloaded state," says the Saturday Evening Post, "would break down like any other overloaded machine. In any essential free country a state expanded to war size, supervizing and regulating all sorts of activities and relationships, could not endure ten years under normal conditions. The centralized, bureaucratic, cumbersome, busybody overlord, with red-tape mind and red-tape manners, would be intolerable. Inevitably a process of decentralization would set in, with actual authority leaking out of the bloated state into other reservoirs. A pretty extensive bankruptcy of the state, as to actual authority, might easily result.
It is a sound instinct that now turns away from state control."It is surely. The American people have the ablest business men and the finest business machinery in the world.
That machinery has developed under the stimulus of private enterprise, and functions best in private hands. All that is needed is a sufficient degree of public supervision to curb the profiteers and the exploiters and to safeguard the public interest.

EARLY AMERICANIZATION.

"Are we not overlooking the easiest, surest and most natural means of laying the foundation for Americanization when we neglect to provide a sufficient number of kindergartens for all children of the aliens in our midst?" says School Life."When can our language, our customs and ideals be so easily grasped and assimilated as during the impressionable years of early childhood?""Can any one enter the home of the alien more easily than the kindergartner, who, with the mother, has a common interest in the little child?""Can you imagine a better class in Americanization than the mother's meetings, where shy foreign women of different nationalities meet with the kindergartner and take their first lesson in American customs, manners and ideals?""Can we expect the alien to believe that we have his best interest at heart when we neglect to provide for his little ones the early training in English, honesty, industry and thrift, which are essential to good citizenship?"

SOLDIERS AGAINST PROHIBITION.

The labor vote, and probably the soldier vote, would be strongly against prohibition in England, if it were urged as a permanent measure. New Zealand has rejected prohibition, and it appears that the soldier vote went strongly against it.But the United States is neither England nor New Zealand. The temper of the people, as well as drinking customs, are very different. In the absence of any general statement from soldiers on the subject, it is foolish to argue that if American soldiers had been permitted to vote on the question, prohibition in America would not have won.WILSON SAYS HE

DECLARE PEACE

tion of the treaty and acceptance of the covenant of the league as written would "certainly within the near future reduce the cost of living both in this country and abroad through the restoration of production and commerce to normal.

Colonies Not Divided.

To Senator Fall's questions relating to the disposition of Germany's possessions, the president said the arrangement in the treaty conveyed no title to the allied or associated powers but merely intrusted disposition of the territory in question to their decision.""Germany's renunciation in favor of the principal allied and associated powers" the president continued, "of her rights and titles to her overseas possessions is meant similarly to operate as vesting in those powers a trusteeship with respect of their final disposition and government."

The President's Letter

The president's letter follows:
My Dear Senator Fall:You left yesterday in my hands certain written questions which I promised you I would answer. I am hastening to fulfill that promise.I feel constrained to say in reply to your first question not only that in my judgment I have not the power by proclamation to declare that peace exists, but that I could in no circumstance consent to take such a course prior to the ratification of a formal treaty of peace. I feel it due to perfect frankness to say that it would in my opinion put a stain upon our national honor which we never could efface, if after sending our men to the battlefield to fight the common cause, we should abandon our associates in the war in the settlement of the terms of peace and disassociate ourselves from all responsibility with regard to those terms.I respectfully suggest that, having said this, I have in effect answered also your second, third and fourth questions, so far as I myself am concerned.

Few Cannot Create League

Permit me to answer your fifth question by saying that the provisions of the treaty to which you refer operate merely to establish peace between the powers ratifying, and that it is questionable whether it can be said that the league of nations is in any true sense created by the association of only three of the allied and associated governments.In reply to your sixth question, I can only express the confident opinion that the immediate adoption of the treaty, along with the articles of the covenant of the league as written, would certainly within the near future reduce the cost of living in this country as elsewhere, by restoring production and commerce to their normal strength and freedom.For your convenience, I will number the remaining paragraphs of this letter as the questions to which they are intended to reply are numbered.

Scandinavians May Join

Seven. I have had no official information as to whether Norway, Sweden, Denmark, Holland or Switzerland will join the league.Eighth. I answered your eighth question asked me at our conference the other day. (This question referred to licensing of exports to Germany.)Nine. In February, 1917, Spain was requested to take charge of American interests in Germany through her diplomatic and consular representatives, and no other arrangement has since been made.

Definite Plans Not Made

Ten. The committee to prepare plans for the organization of the league, for the establishment of the seat of the league, and for the proceedings of the first meeting of the assembly, has been appointed, but has not reported.Eleven. Article 118 of the peace treaty, part IV, under which Germany renounces all her rights to territory formerly belonging to herself or to her allies was understood, so far as special provision was not made in the treaty itself for its disposition, as constituting the principal allied and associated powers the authority by which such disposition should ultimately be determined.
It conveys no title to those powers, but merely entrusts the disposition of the territory in question to their decisions.

Colonies Not Appropriated

Twelve. Germany's renunciation in favor of the principal allied and associated powers of her rights and titles to her overseas possession is meant similarly to operate as vesting in those powers a trusteeship with respect of their final disposition and government.Thirteen. There has been a provisional agreement as to the disposition of these overseas possessions, whose confirmation and execution is dependent upon the approval of the league of nations, and the United States is a party to that provisional agreement.

Fourteen. The only agreement between France and Great Britain with regard to African territory of which I am cognizant concerns the redistribution of rights already possessed by those countries on that continent. The provisional agreement referred to in the preceding paragraph covers all the German overseas possessions in Africa as well as elsewhere.

No American on Saar Body

Fifteen. No mention was made in connection with the settlement of the Saar basin of the service of an American member of the commission of five to be set up there.Sixteen. It was deemed wise that the United States should be represented by one member of the commission for settling the new frontier lines of Belgium and Germany, because of the universal opinion that America's representative would add to the commission a useful element of entirely disinterested judgment.Seventeen. The choice of the commission for the Saar basin was left to the council of the league of nations, because the Saar basin is for fifteen years to be directly under the care and direction of the league of nations.Eighteen. Article 83 does in effect provide that five members of the commission of seven to fix the boundaries between Poland and Czechoslovakia should be nominated by certain countries because there are five principal allied and associated powers, and the nomination of five representatives by those powers necessarily means the nomination of one representative by each of those powers.Nineteen. No such commission has yet been appointed. (The commission referred to is that for the fixing of the Polish boundaries.)Twenty. It was deemed wise that the United States should have a representative on the commission set up to exercise authority over the plebiscite of upper Silesia, for the same reason that I have given with regard to the commission for settling the frontier line of Belgium and Germany.Sincerely yours, Woodrow Wilson.MEXICAN ENVOY troops crossed the Rio Grande into Mexico Tuesday morning. A report received here last night told of an American cavalry sergeant, who rode to the border after dark and reported that Captain Matlack had captured two bandits, believed to have been implicated in the capture of the aviators, Peterson and Davis.Neither man was Renteria, the bandit leader, he said. One Mexican was killed Tuesday when American aviators returned their fire when they saw three bandits near the border, one of whom was seen to fall with his horse.The American troops slept last night on the trails of the bandits after losing them in Tuesday's torrential rains, picking up the trails again yesterday.

200 Carranzistas Help

General Pruneda with approximately 250 Carranza cavalry troops camped for the night near Cuchillo Parado, 40 miles up the Conchos river from the base at Ojinaga. They left Ojinaga last night to take the field in pursuit of the bandits. American pack trains and other units crossed and re-crossed the path of the Carranza troops without incident, according to reports from the field last night.Mexican Consul Cosme Benegochia, at Presidio, Texas, announced that the Pruneda troops were attempting the same object as the American troops—to run down and capture the bandits.

General Dickman Near Border

Major General Joseph T. Dickman, commander of the southern department, was scheduled to arrive here this morning to inspect the troops in the big bend district. His visit and the operations across the border is a coincidence, as he is making an inspection of Fort Clark and other army posts and camping along this sector of the border. It is not known whether General Dickman will go to the Rio Grande or not while he is here.

OF BUSINESS HIT
BY SEN. FERNALD

said, "Swift & Co. in 1918 paid on an average $92.70 a head for cattle, and sold the meat for $81.45 a head. For by-products $22.08 a head was received.
Thus $10.81 covered the expense and profit on each head, and figures show the profit per head was only $1.02."

Trade Commission Assailed

Senator Fernald attacked the federal trade commission for "questionable methods" in its investigation and report on the packers, and said that it had very largely lost sight of its function to aid and guide business."The commission," asserted the senator, "failed to get any evidence of combination. It is only by unfair methods, by misinterpretation and misstatement of facts that it was able to come to the conclusion that there is combination in restraint of trade. This report so far as I have been able to investigate it contains no evidence of monopoly. I am reliably informed that the commission in some instances actually used only such parts of telegrams taken from the files of the packers as appeared to bear out its case, omitting items from the same telegrams which were not useful evidence to the committee."

Help Make Business Big

Complaints of wholesale grocers that the packers were entering their field in the sale of perishable foods, he classed as unjustified, with the remark that the same complaint might be made against the grocers for handling drugs, hardware, and other goods out of their line."It is unthinkable that congress should give the government power to say," he asserted on this point, "what products a concern may or may not handle, as it would be able to do under proposed legislation. Instead of attempting to make big business little, let us all pull together to make little business big. Remove the shackles some-men are attempting to place on the business interests of the country. Give them a fair field. Let each work out in his own way the great industrial problems before us."

PRODUCERS AGAINST BILLS.

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Washington, D. C., Aug. 21.—Livestock producers object to legislation proposing strict regulation of the packing industry. Henry W. Lynch, representing California and Arizona stock men, told the senate agricultural committee today.

"We feel that the packing industry is the marketing end of our business," he said, "and that the Kenyon bill would tend to demoralize and hamper it. The bill is entirely destructive and at present, with prices falling on our steers, it will cripple us further."Though he had talked to bankers and livestock associations before coming to Washington, Lynch under Senator Ken-yon's questioning that neither he nor his associates had been influenced in their opinions by the five big packing companies.Change Devices to

FRANKLIN GROVE AFFAIRS

(BY J. C. COOK)

CORN IS KING

Notwithstanding the dry weather which has prevailed in this locality during the most of the summer months, prospects seem to be favorable for a good corn crop. A few big yellow ears recently plucked from the J. E. Wolfe farm from a 40 acre field across the road from their residence were well developed and nearly matured.

Life's Eventime

In a commodious country home, surrounded with every comfort to make life pleasant and enjoyable, surrounded by the scenes he dearly loves, there dwells a quiet, unpretentious citizen of the commonwealth, who has however been a forceful factor in public enterprises and affairs of Lee county. Nature seems to have intended that man shall enjoy a period of rest in the eventime of life. In youth, vigorous and ambitious he undertakes his tasks with will and later his efforts are directed by more mature desires and experiences of middle life and having achieved success with an honored name and comfortable competence can devote his time to such interests as are of the greatest interest and pleasure to him. And thus in the eventime of life, having "borne the heat and burden of the day," Henry Hillson, of Bradford, is calmly and serenely enjoying the fruits of his labors.

Henry Hillson is a native of Lee county, his birthplace being only a short distance from the old homestead where he now resides. His father, Amos Hillson was a native of Norway who emigrated to America in 1850 and in 1854 walked the entire distance from New York to Chicago and nearly all the way from there on foot to Inlet Grove, in Lee county. He was the first Norseman to set foot in this part of the country; a man of strong physique, endowed with indomitable energy and determination of purpose, qualities of character that have been transmitted to his progeny. During the first five years of his residence in the county he worked on a farm. At the end of this period he purchased 160 acres of land and commenced his career as a successful farmer. He was married in 1857 to Miss Ingaborg Maland and to this union two children were born: Henry, and Englev, who died at the age of three years. During his earlier experiences in the county which was during the pioneer period, when Indians were still numerous and the outlaws and bandits were roaming the prairies, Amos Hillson gave no thought for self protection, never owned a gun or pistol and was never owned a gun or pistol and was nevertheless successful in all his undertakings and at the age of 75 passed over the border of earthly life.

It is due largely to the foresight, energy and determination of Henry Hillson that Lee county is now favored with an excellent telephone service. The Farmers' Telephone Co., is an organization composed of men of sterling worth and character, who plan not only for the financial success of the enterprise but to afford the public efficient service at a reasonable cost. Mr. Hillson served two years as supervisor in China township, has been president of the Farmers' Telephone Co.

He is a member of the Lutheran church and for many years has been prominent in Masonic circles he was Worshipful Master in his lodge at Lee Center, A. F. & A. M. when his four sons were initiated into the Blue Lodge.

There are some interesting data connected with the Hillson home. It was built many years ago but is a model of convenience and comfort. It is said that every person who was employed in its construction has long since passed the way of all the living. Back from the house a short distance stands two old apple trees which were grafted the day that Abraham Lincoln was assassinated. For over half a century they have bore their fruit and though now old and scarred they still furnish food for nourishment as well as food for reflection as they recall a date in history that will remain tragic for all time. In the broad old fashioned hallway of the Hillson home, the walls of the winding stairway, has panels painted or grained in imitation of rare woods. This painting was done in 1881 by G. W. Marvin and the work is today as perfect in color and tone as when first designed. The adjoining farm west from the Hillson place was for some years the Ingersoll home where Robert J. passed some of his boyhood days.

M. E. QUARTERLY CONFERENCE

At the Methodist quarterly conference held here it was decided that the church society of Franklin Grove would hereafter become a separate charge from Ashton with which it has long been united. This will afford a pastor here who can give his undivided time to the local work. Rev. Kerns who is very popular in Ashton will probably be returned to that charge, which may be congratulated upon securing a minister of such earnest zeal and advanced thought and insight into spiritual truths.

POWERFUL PILE REMEDY DISCOVERED

Has Never Failed to End Most Obstinate Case of Piles in Few Days.

For years it has been proved that so-called external remedies applied to or inserted in the rectum cannot cure piles, and at the best can only give temporary relief. Surgical operations also do not remove this cause, but simply the formation.

This wonderful prescription, known as Miro Pile Remedy, is so efficient in the treatment of piles, that even chronic cases of from 20 to 30 years standing with profuse bleeding have been completely cured in from three to ten days. Think of it! Just a few doses of a carefully balanced prescription and the most persistent case of piles is absorbed, never to return.

All pharmacists dispense Miro or can get it for you on short notice. Surely it's worth the little trouble to obtain it to be rid of piles forever.

IMPORTANT—What is known as itching piles are not piles in the true sense of the word, although this condition may accompany a true case of piles. For this condition Miro Pile Ointment has been prepared as in such cases it is not necessary to take the internal prescription. "If your druggists cannot supply you we will gladly send either of the above mail charges prepaid on receipt of price. Internal Treatment $1.50 War Tax 5c. Ointment 50c War Tax 2c extra. Oldsmobile Truck

A Genuine Utility Truck That Spells True Economy In Every Line of Business

INTEREST in a motor truck centers in its proven ability to transport goods economically. On this basis consider the Oldsmobile Economy Truck.

It is a remarkable saver of time. Speedy, powerful, driven by Torbensen Internal Gear rear axle and mounted on pneumatic tires, it makes capacity-load deliveries in record time and in the best possible condition.

This positive ability to render dependably satisfactory service and the very low consumption of gasoline and oil are the chief reasons for the name "Oldsmobile Economy Truck."

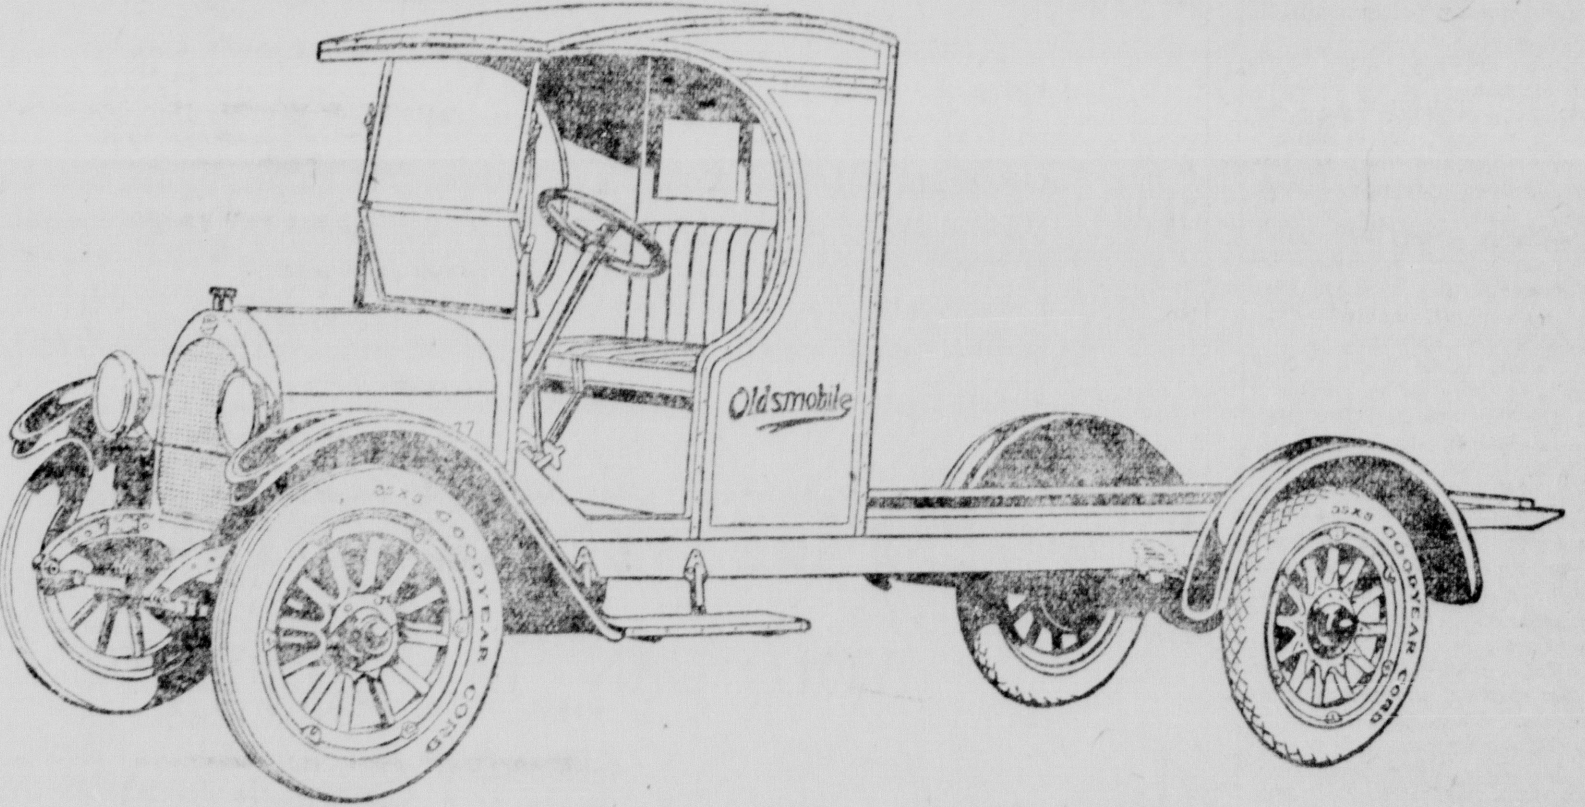

But equally important, the cost of maintaining this truck is reduced to the very minimum; a long life of efficient service is a fact assured in advance.

Why are these things true of the Oldsmobile Economy Trucks? Because every unit—motor, frame axles, tires, in fact every part from radiator to tail light—has proven worth, is built to uphold the reputation for leadership that the name Oldsmobile has enjoyed for 22 years. Because the truck as a whole is the best that sound engineering and ultra-thorough factory methods can produce.

The adaptability and range of usefulness of the Oldsmobile Economy Truck makes it the logical truck in a wide variety of fields. Those who have considered greater carrying capacity necessary in their work will find this feature far more than offset by the moderate first cost, speed, low operating cost and extremely low maintenance cost of this Oldsmobile.

SANDRA THE JEALOUS

By JANE PHELPS.

EVERETT QUESTIONS SANDRA. CHAPTER LII.

The next morning at breakfast, Everett read his paper in silence. He looked so stern I did not dare interrupt him. Before he left for the office, however, he said:

"I shall be at home early. Try and meet me without red eyes."

"Yes, Everett," was my inane reply. "And please remain in doors today. Read or practice as you like." Again I answered:

"Yes, Everett." I seemed to have lost all the courage I had the night before, and could only say the most ordinary thing to him—evidently what he expected, however, for he gave me a careless kiss and said:

"That's a good girl."

"Good girl!" I didn't want to be a good girl. I wanted to be like Leola, impulsive, indiscreet, so he would love me as he had loved her.

"I won't be good! I'll be just as bad as I know how!" I said violently as I watched him go swinging down the street. "Leola wasn't good, and you cared much more for her than you do for me. I just will not be good!" I stamped my foot childishly as I turned from the window.

"I wonder did he ever order Leola to stay indoors, and if she obeyed him?" I asked the question aloud. "I'll bet she didn't!" I resumed my soliloquy. "And I won't be treated so! I won't!" and again the ready tears flowed.

As I look back, I think that had it not been for the ideas I had formed of Leola, her attitude toward life and toward Everett, I should have been far happier than I was, and probably should have been content to do the thing Everett told me to do. But constantly Leola, her terrible indiscretions, of which I knew nothing, and had no means of finding out, were in my mind. But more than that was the jealousy caused because I had been told of Everett's love for her, which I believed was greater than that he gave me.

It was only a little after five when Everett came in. I had spent a miserable day, doing nothing he had advised, but walking aimlessly from one room to another, trying to kill time. I thought of calling up Barrett Edmonds, but didn't quite dare for fear Everett would object. He did not yet know that Barrett had escorted Leola and me to the theater the night he came back. He would be sure to find it out, and it might make him unpleasant to Barrett—a thing I couldn't endure to consider. I had seen the effect of his actions upon Rose, and I wouldn't let him demean me before anyone else—especially before Barrett.

"What have you been doing all day? What have you read?"

"Nothing—to both questions," was my apathetic answer.

"You mean that you have neither read nor practised?"

"Yes."

"No wonder you are fretful and unhappy. Moping about doing nothing. I shall lay out a course of reading and study for you at once, and shall expect you to adhere strictly to it."

I made no reply.

"Where had you and Miss Grandon been that evening I came back?"

"To the theater."

"By yourselves?"

"No."

"Who was with you?"

"Mr. Edmonds."

"How did he come to ask you?"

"We met him while out in the motor. I introduced him to Rose, and then he asked if he might help entertain her since you were away."

"I forbade you to go out to places of amusement while I was away; to receive calls—yet you deliberately ignore my wishes. I am very glad your friend had sense enough to go home." And he finished it seemed as if something broke in me and I exclaimed:

"I am glad too! you don't suppose I wanted her to say and see how awfully unhappy you make me, do you? As it is she will tell everyone at home how I am treated—how you insulted her! I wanted terribly to go home and see Father and Mother and the boys. Now I never want to go home—I'd rather die! There isn't one of the boys or girls in the whole town who won't pity me for being married. They all said I wouldn't be happy if I married you, that you would not let me say my soul was my own. But I didn't believe them. I do now!"

Tomorrow—Everett invites Edmonds to supper.

Plans to Raise Navy Salaries to Keep Up Enlisted Personnel

By Associated Press Leased Wire

Washington, Aug. 21.—With the resignations of more than 300 permanent officers of the regular navy already submitted to the department and more arriving daily, acting Secretary Roosevelt today began work on proposed legislation to be submitted to congress suggesting substantial pay increases for officers and enlisted men of the navy and marine corps.

High ranking officers believe the efficiency of the navy is seriously threatened. Most of the resignations have come from the younger officers in the lower grades, the men to whom the country looks for the leadership of its sea forces in the years to come. These officers, receiving from $1,700 to $3,000 a year, most of them Annapolis graduates capable of earning much higher salaries in civilian life, say they find it impossible to support their families on their pay.

More resignations are now on file than had been received from the entire regular navy in the last thirty years. Since 1898 the average has been seven a year. Among the resignations now awaiting action are those of more than seventy-five officers of the line, 191 doctors, 25 chaplains, a score of supply officers and nine naval constructors.

Quebec Plans Great Reception for Prince

By Associated Press Leased Wire

Quebec, Aug. 21.—Elaborate preparations have been made here for the reception to the Prince of Wales when he arrives on the British warship Renown tonight. Dignitaries of the state, church, and city will greet him when he lands, and conduct him to the viceroyal quarters in the citadel where dinner will be served. There will be a display of fireworks from the heights of the citadel overlooking the city and the St. Lawrence river.

Tomorrow the prince will be presented with addresses at the legislative buildings by Premier Gouin and the mayor. After a reception he will visit Laval university and the Jeffrey Hale hospital. He will deposit wreaths on the Montcalm and Wolfe monuments; assist in unfurling the union jack on the Quebec battlefield park; review a guard of honor composed of veterans of the war and unveil commemorative plates at the official inauguration ceremonies of the Quebec bridge. He plans to depart Sunday.

Recovering From Operation—Elwood Schultz, the little son of Mr. and Mrs. William Schultz, was taken to his home today from the hospital where he recently underwent a tonsillar operation from which he is making a good recovery.

SAYS THERE'S NOTHING LIKE HOWARD'S BUTTERMILK CREAM FOR BEAUTIFYING THE COMPLEXION

This Good Looking Young Woman Advises Old Time Recipe of Buttermilk Cream in a New Way—A Gentle Massage with Fingers Before Retiring All That Is Necessary.

The old-time application of Buttermilk and Cream to whiten and preserve the skin and remove harsh little wrinkles and ugly sallowness is grandmother's recipe and women throughout the country are again using it to ensure a beautiful complexion and snow-white hands and arms.

Buttermilk, however, is not always obtainable, but a specialist has at last perfected a method of concentrating buttermilk and combining it with a perfect cream, which you can buy in small quantities ready to use at any first-class drug store by simply asking for "Howard's" Buttermilk Cream.

No matter whether you are troubled with wrinkles, hard little lines around the mouth and eyes, coarse, sallow, faded looking skin, or simply roughness or redness caused by wind and sun, you will find that all these troubles quickly disappear with the use of this old-fashioned beauty recipe brought up to date.

Beautiful actresses say "A short massage with Howard's Buttermilk Cream at night before retiring is all that is necessary."

ALIEN PROBLEM WILL BE SOLVED BY NEW METHOD

By Associated Press Leased Wire

Washington, D. C., Aug. 21.—A new method of dealing with the incoming alien problem is embodied in a bill being prepared by the House Immigration Committee. It is regarded as the most drastic measure of the kind ever presented to Congress.

Adoption of the bill would mean, its framers say, literal fulfillment of the so-called "gentlemen's agreement" between the United States and Japan with respect to immigration and would keep out Japanese coolies.

Under the Root-Takihara agreement, Japan is obligated to send no coolies to this country, but it charged the records disclose that they arrive by the thousands, with passports as merchants, students, and the like. Once here it is alleged, they remain, send for "picture brides," raise families and their children become citizens of the United States by right of birth.

Allen Flow To Cease.

Representative Albert Johnson, of Hoquiam, Wash., chairman of the House Immigration Committee, in charge of the preparation of the bill says the requirement that aliens land at American ports must have passports with a time limit will break up the great inflow of foreigners. The bill provides that aliens coming within exemption clauses of the present law must obtain passports from their own governments, used by consular agents of the United States, and limited as to time.

But the bill does not stop there. Aliens, who under present laws are eligible to citizenship, would be permitted to come to the United States without passports providing they state in writing their belief that they intend to reside here and become citizens. They must agree to register at least once a year, failure to do so being a cause for deportation. Failure to take out first papers at the end of two years' residence, also is cause for deportation.

Must Take Out Papers.

After taking out papers, aliens must remain here five years for final citizenship, with a time allowance off for knowledge of the elements of the American plan of government and proficiency in the English language. If an alien does not acquire citizenship in eight years he is sent home.

The committee hopes to provide a plan by which citizens of contiguous territory, Canada, and Mexico, may visit the United States on cards issued annually.

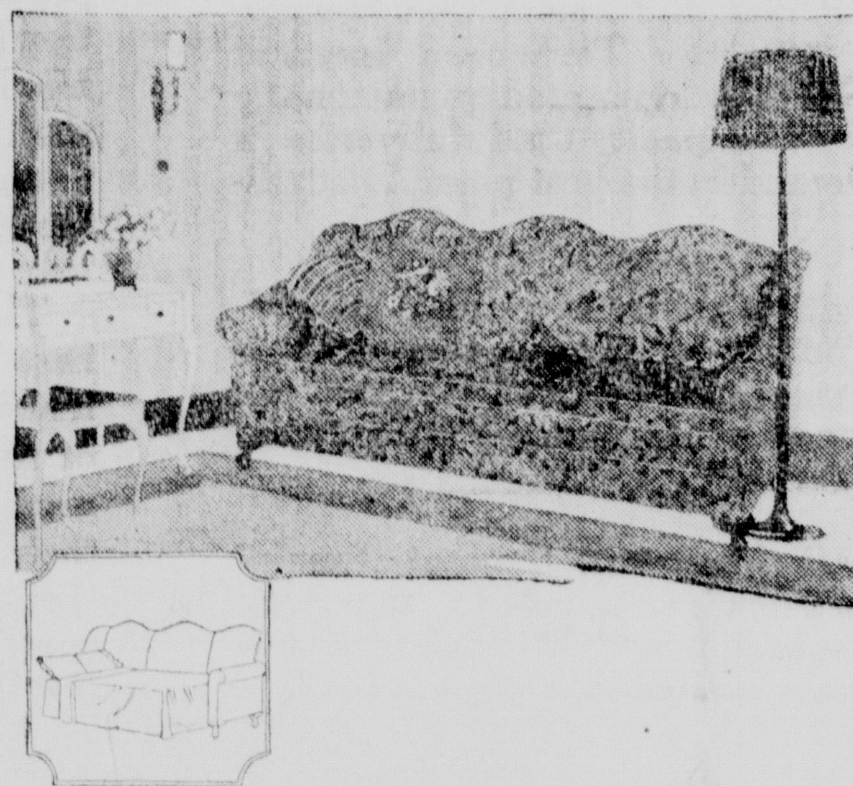

Chairman Johnson is trying to have congress send a special committee comprising eastern and middle west members to the Pacific coast to study the Japanese situation. "We want the east to study it," he said.

Mental Tests Required.

"Immigrants now come to the United States freely and are required to pass mental and physical tests," Chairman Johnson said, explaining his bill. "Many classes, such as lawyers, teachers, students, merchants and actors, are exempted from these tests. These are the class that it is proposed to have come with limited passports. That is to say, they are to come as visitors, and not as prospective citizens. If one comes as a prospective citizen he must so state, and agree in writing to place himself under probation, reporting at stated intervals. That is all there is to it. Visitors are welcome. We have room for desirable immigrants, but must have a guarantee as to their continued desirability and their willingness to acquire not only American citizenship but all that the word Americanism implies."

Members of the committee say it is not likely a bill suspending immigration for any stated period could pass congress.

Erzberger Menace to German Public Life, Helfferich Asserts

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Berlin, Tuesday, Aug. 19.—(Delayed)—In an open letter to President Ebert, Dr. Karl Helfferich, the former vice chancellor, sets forth the reasons which prompt him to wage public warfare against Matthias Erzberger, whom he designates as "a menace to the purity of our public life" and declares to be a most unsound and at the same time dangerous, incumbent of the financial ministry in view of the far-reaching jurisdiction given to him by the government.

Berlin dispatches early in July reported that Dr. Helfferich blamed the Reichstag's peace program of July, 1917, fathered by Erzberger, for the moral collapse of the German people. Later he announced that having failed to induce Erzberger to sue him, he would enter suit against Erzberger to prove him a traitor and to bring the truth to light.

RESIGNED HIS POSITION.
H. C. Reed, manager of the elevator at Nelson, has resigned his position there, and gone to Moline where he has entered the wholesale grocery business. His son, H. L. Reed is now in charge of the Nelson business.

Some of the members seem to think it's a league of consternations.

LITTLE VARIATION IN CORN PRICES

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Chicago, Aug. 21.—The corn market started today with mixed sentiment, early selling being offset by fair support on the declines. Prices kept within narrow limits. The September delivery showed the greatest relative strength at the start. Opening prices ranged from 1/4c lower to 1/4c higher with Sept. at 1.84 1/2 to 1.84 1/2 and Dec. 1.43 1/2 to 1.44. The opening was followed by a slight sag which carried September to about yesterday's closing point.
Oats followed the course of corn though exhibiting greater firmness. Opening prices were 1/4c higher to 1/4c lower with Sept. at 72 to 73 1/2c. Later prices advanced fractionally, limiting offerings being readily absorbed.
Provisions were generally firmer with advanced live hog figures. Opening prices were from 3c to 20c higher.
Subsequently the corn market underwent a decline but offerings were quickly absorbed and the rally carried prices well away from the low levels. The close was strong 1/4 to 1 1/2c net higher with Sept. at 1.84 1/2 to 1.85 and Dec. 1.45 to 1.45 1/2.

Butter and Egg Men Will Be Tried Soon

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Chicago, Ill., Aug. 21.—United States District Attorney Clyne announced today that the trial of members of the Elgin butter and egg board, indicted two years ago for conspiracy to fix prices, will be begun in a week or so. The trial will be rushed, it is said, in connection with the investigation into the activities of food profiteers.

Mr. Clyne stated today that his conference yesterday with state attorneys and food directors from ten counties of northern Illinois developed the fact that an unusual and excessive amount of food stuffs was held in storage throughout the state. He said prosecutions against these hoarders would be started at once.
